SECTION B – WITHHOLDING TAXES

Payments for sales on the IN marketplace are subject to 10% Singapore tax withholding. Singapore residents will be exempt from withholding after completing this STQ, which must include a valid Singapore Tax Identification Number.

Non-Singapore residents of countries that have an income tax treaty with Singapore (see complete list here) may be eligible for a reduced withholding rate. To check if you qualify, you can complete the Tax Treaty Calculator. Select ROYALTIES – INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS in Step 2. If you qualify, you must provide a Certificate of Tax Residency (COR) in hard copy format to be eligible for a reduced withholding rate. A COR can be obtained from your government taxing authority. The COR must include a government stamp, clearly state the country of residence for tax purposes, and indicate the validity period. If the COR is not in English, a translated, notarized version must also be included with the original. The COR must be mailed with this STQ to the appropriate address listed in the above Instructions section.

Marketplace	Documentation Required
AMAZON.IN (India)	Singapore Residents: Singapore STQ	Non-Singapore Residents Claiming Treaty Benefits: Singapore STQ and Certificate of Tax Residency (COR)	Non-Singapore Residents Not Claiming Treaty Benefits: None

If you do not qualify for treaty benefits, or if you do not provide required documentation, 10% tax withholding will apply to your payments on the IN marketplace.
