

TO AND FROM HOGWARTS

(LEFT) In this concept by Adam Brockbank of the concluding shot of Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban, Harry Potter leaves Hogwarts on the Firebolt broom given to him by Sirius Black. (BELOW) In Prisoner of Azkaban, students are taken to the castle in carriages that seem to move on their own—but are actually pulled by invisible (to most) Thestrals. Art by Dermot Power. (OPPOSITE) Two views of the Hogwarts Express approaching the castle—one for Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix by concept designer Adam Brockbank (LEFT) and the other for Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince by concept artist Andrew Williamson (RIGHT).
