3 Set Inventory Replenishment Alerts

- Determine which metric will drive replenishment alerts. Use the dropdown menu to make your selection.
  - Option 1: When fulfillable quantity reaches X units
  - Option 2: When Weeks-of-Cover reaches X weeks

- Insert your Alert Threshold quantity.
  - You can either apply this value to all MSKUs, or manually adjust individual line items by clicking into the Alert Threshold field.
  - We recommend you select a quantity based on average sales and the time it takes to replenish stock for that item.

Set Inventory Replenishment Alerts

On this page, you can set, edit and delete replenishment alerts for your items. Once you set a replenishment alert for an item, Amazon will notify you within 24 hours when the item reaches the alert quantity. When you select an alert quantity for a given item, we suggest you select a quantity based on your sales and the time it takes to replenish stock for that item. Learn more
