

UK Restricted Products Guidelines

Please ensure that all your products comply with the applicable EU and local laws and regulations and with Amazon's restricted product guidelines.

Schedule 1 lists some examples of products that cannot be lawfully marketed or sold, and products that we do not allow to be marketed or sold on our site.

This non-exhaustive list comprises simple examples of product questions that have come up over time. You are, of course, responsible for complying with applicable laws. This document is not meant to serve as legal advice for you. If you have questions about legal requirements for your products, please consult with your legal counsel.
