

Warranty

At Colgate we stand behind the integrity and craftsmanship we put into all of our products. While we're very proud of our quality control, on rare occasions manufacturers' defects do occur. We offer a product warranty that is a conditional warranty. Here's what that means: The warranty is to the original purchaser who provides proof of purchase for as long as they own the mattress. This warranty is non-transferable. The warranty covers against defects in workmanship or materials from the original date of purchase. Our warranty gives you specific rights that may vary from state to state. If proven defective, please return the unit along with proof of purchase to your dealer for further details. The mattress cover is not warranted against tears or stains and the mattress is not warranted against physical abuse.

Manufacturers' warranties may not apply in all cases, depending on factors such as use of the product, where the product was purchased, or who you purchased the product from. Please review the warranty carefully, and contact the manufacturer if you have any questions.
