

WARRANTY

If your Lightair IonFlow 50 air purifier ceases to function within the warranty period set by the local Consumer Purchaser Act in your country from the original purchase date as a result of a fault in the material or manufacturing, Lightair undertakes to repair or exchange the product, as the company sees fit. In order for this offer to be valid, the purchaser must return the product to a Lightair authorised service point, along with proof of the date and location of the original purchase.

- This warranty does not cover damage caused as a result of accidents, incorrect usage, dirt, lack of due care (see above), or service carried out by non-authorized service points. Lightair does not take responsibility for consequential damage, indirect damage, or damage caused by transportation

- This warranty is limited to the above undertakings and does not give the purchaser a right to demand damages or other compensation. This warranty does not affect the purchaser's statutory consumer rights according to regional or national law.

IMPORTANT! This warranty does not cover damage caused by failure to follow the instructions given in the user manual.

Manufacturers' warranties may not apply in all cases, depending on factors such as use of the product, where the product was purchased, or who you purchased the product from. Please review the warranty carefully, and contact the manufacturer if you have any questions.
