

First pairing steps

Step 1: Take out the two headphones from the battery box will power on automatically.

Step 2: Refresh the Bluetooth device of the mobile phone, pairing the “Redmi AirDots_R”. The left ear does not need to be matched separately. It can be connected automatically.

Note:

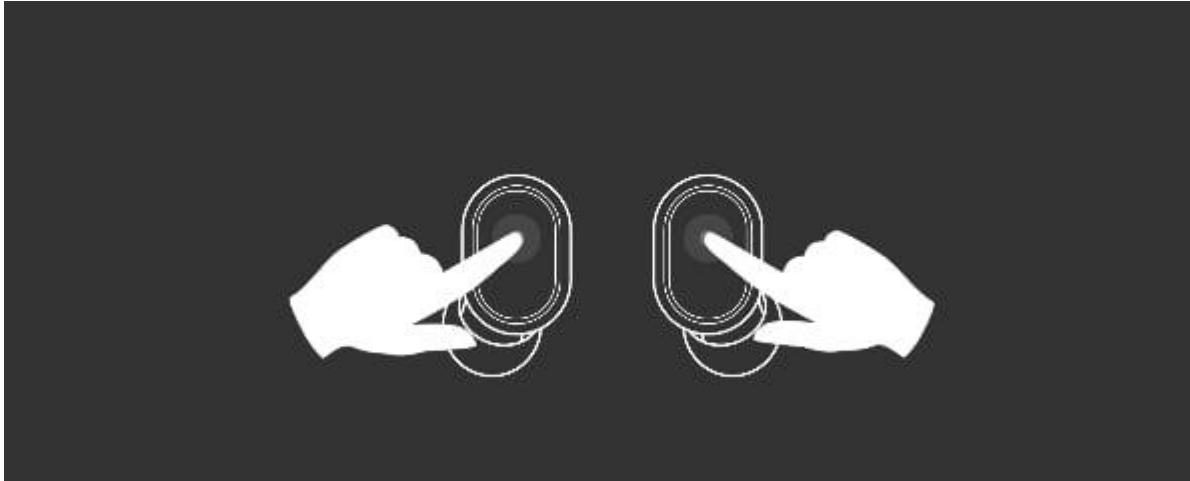

- If you put the headphones back into the charging box and red light will be turned on, the Redmi Airdots will automatically disconnect.
- If you take out the headphones and the white light turned on, the Airdots automatically connect back.

How to reset Redmi AirDots?

Step 1: Press the multi-function key for 15 seconds until the red and white light flashes alternately three times and off, the device reset successful.

Step 2: Ignore or unpair "Redmi AirDots_R", in the list of Bluetooth devices for mobile phones. Delete the connection record and complete the reset.

How to operate the function key?

1.Answer/ hang up /reject the phone call

- When come an incoming call, tap the multi-function key to answer the phone.
- While on a phone call, press the multi-function button to hang up the phone.
- When come an incoming call, long press the multi-function key to reject the phone.

2.Play / pause the music

When music player is running in the background, light press the function key to play or pause music.

3.Turn on voice assistant

In standby mode, double-click the function key to start the voice assistant

Note:

- The phone needs to support the voice control function and turn on the quick wake-up setting.
- The Xiaomi Redmi Airdots supports Xiaomi Xiaoai voice control, Siri and Google Assistant.
- The Redmi AirDots supports third-party chat and voice input on iOS, while the Android OS uses the phone microphone by default when entering voice.

4.Volume adjustment

The Xiaomi Redmi Airdots do not support the volume adjustment, you need to adjust the volume by your phone.