Three steps for repairing

If you encounter any problem in product usage, we suggest you consult the following steps to quickly resolve the problem:

Screen the problems by self-checking:

1. Please first review the User's Manual and the Software CD included with the Product:

The User's Manual and Software CD provided by MSI containing a lot of information about product usage. The manual we compose from user's perspective can answer many of your questions. If your manual was lost, you may download the manual you need from MSI website.

2. Visit MSI website for support:

MSI retains a group of customer service engineers with professional knowledge. You may post a message about the problem you encounter in MSI's Online Customer Service, and our engineers will try their best to answer your question concerning product usage immediately. Or you may look for FAQ in the website to see whether there is any solution for similar problems.

Seek support from the original store of purchase or distributor of the Product:

If you cannot seek any solution for the problem from the above methods, you may seek support from the original store of purchase or distributor, because the original store of purchase should best know your system configuration and specifications, and can provide you with any necessary resource and service.

Bring the Product to the authorized service center for maintenance

If your product has been determined by the MSI engineer or store as problematic or defective in hardware, and may incur the need for replacement of parts, you may bring the Product for repair along with the warranty card, purchase invoice or receipt to the MSI-authorized service center closest to your location for assistance, or entrust the original store of purchase to send the Product for repair on your behalf. However, the customer must properly pack the Product when sending it for repair, to avoid further damage in the course of shipping.

Manufacturers' warranties may not apply in all cases, depending on factors such as use of the product, where the product was purchased, or who you purchased the product from. Please review the warranty carefully, and contact the manufacturer if you have any questions.
