

Limited Lifetime Warranty

Mediabridge Products' Limited Lifetime Warranty applies to Mediabridge ULTRA Series and FLEX Series HDMI to HDMI cables sold by Mediabridge Products, LLC. or an authorized reseller after 09/30/2009.

The original purchaser's Mediabridge Cable is warranted to never fail as a result of defects in material or workmanship. Should a Mediabridge ULTRA SERIES HDMI Cable or FLEX SERIES HDMI Cable fail due to defects in material or workmanship Mediabridge will repair or replace the Cable free of charge. This warranty is limited to repair or replacement only, is non-transferrable and does not extend to any Cable damaged by misuse (including use other than as intended), acts of God, fire, flood or other circumstances beyond Mediabridge's control. Returned products will be examined for compliance with warranty for repair/replacement. If replacement is required and if Mediabridge then no longer carries the same product, then Mediabridge reserves the right to substitute the product with a replacement of like quality and size, suitable for the intended use of the product. This express warranty is in lieu of all other warranties. All other warranties including the implied warrant of suitability for a particular purpose are hereby expressly disclaimed. Buyer should ship the item via traceable means to Mediabridge Products at the address below for inspection. Upon receipt of the returned item, and upon confirmation that the subject product meets the terms of the warranty and has not been damaged due to misuse and upon confirmation the replacement item will be sent at no charge.
