INTRODUCTION

Soldiers, sailors and air crews!

Our challenge was to return to where it all started.

The second world war feels impossibly vast. We had to pick and choose what inspiration to draw on, where to visit, what to realize. Before we submerged ourselves in the ocean of research, we did have a singular mission in mind: to take our players somewhere new. To visit unseen battlefields. To tell untold stories. To break convention. To create new experiences.

And now we are here. Back where Battlefield™ first started. Ready to embark on a new venture – together. Thank you for choosing to join us.

This indicates the currently equipped gadgets and selected fire mode for your current weapon.

PLAYER STATUS

Here you'll find your current magazine, total ammo, firing mode, grenade count, and health.

PLAYING THE GAME

SPOTTING

Tap the R1 button to permanently spot enemies in your crosshairs (multiplayer only). Or, tap the R1 button to use your Binoculars for long-range spotting abilities (single player only).

ENEMY PERCEPTION, DISTRACTION, AND STEALTH

When an enemy is becoming aware of the player, an awareness indicator appears around your crosshair in their direction. The more the awareness indicator grows, the more aware of the player the enemy becomes until they decide to investigate. This is indicated by the awareness indicator blinking. When the awareness indicator turns red, the enemy has spotted you. An enemy will lose interest after a while so stay low and out of sight, moving slowly to avoid detection, or press the ↑ button to throw a shell casing in another direction to distract enemies.

Sometimes an enemy may become interested in something in your surroundings other than you. If the enemy is investigating something other than you, a mark appears around your crosshair and around the enemy, which quickly fades away if they are not spotted.

COMBINED ARMS

New to Battlefield V, Combined Arms is a cooperative game mode for up to four players where you tackle different types of challenging objectives. Coordination between you and your squad is key to survival.

OBJECTIVE TYPE EXAMPLES

Assassinate	Kill the specified target.
Destroy	Destroy a set number of specific objects.
Eliminate	Kill a certain percentage of enemy soldiers in the specified area.
Steal	Steal a certain item from the designated location.

Once the objectives are complete, your team must head out to the extraction point and survive any onslaught you might come up against to exit with the most rewards.

MULTIPLAYER

NOTE: Online multiplayer features require the use of a PlayStation®Plus account.

GAME SCREEN

RETICLE

Located at the center of the screen, the reticle indicates where you are aiming. Its appearance changes depending on the type of weapon you have equipped.

This reticle indicates the general accuracy of your weapon when firing from the hip—notice the shape and size changes based on certain conditions in-game.

MATCH STATUS

This is your current objective, time remaining, and score for the current match. Sometimes, you'll find additional game mode-specific information here as well.

KILL FEED

A notification appears when a player is killed during a Multiplayer match, showing the attacker, the player killed, and the weapon type. This option is hidden by default. There are options to choose between showing only a weapon icon, only the weapon name, or both.

MINI-MAP

The mini-map shows the position of objectives, teammates, enemies, and vehicles in a Multiplayer match. Enemies will only appear on the mini-map if you spot them, or if they have been spotted by one of your allies. Other icons related to gadgets or gameplay can show up here as well.

A compass above the mini-map makes it easier to call out where enemies are located.

SQUAD MEMBERS

Identify the current class, health, and status of the members assigned to your squad. A star icon indicates the current Squad Leader at the top of the list.

PLAYER STATUS

Here you'll find your current ammo, grenades, firing mode, and health.

EQUIPMENT

This indicates the currently equipped gadgets and selected firing mode for your current weapon. This also indicates if a gadget is on a cooldown. Hold the  button to change single/burst/auto fire.

PLAYER AND VEHICLE HEALTH

Indicates the current health status for your soldier or vehicle. The health bar also shows how much health can be auto regenerated.

ASSIGNMENT TRACKER

The assignment tracker keeps track of daily orders and special assignments. It reminds you about your current mission and shows the progress that is being made.

NPX / TOOL TIPS

The NPX (New Player Experience) guides, helps, and reminds you about different features in the game. The Tool Tips remind you how to use a certain feature.

SCORE LOG

The score log appears whenever you earn XP (getting a kill, capturing an objective, etc.). It also shows the type of kill (normal/headshot/assist) and if the kill triggered a squad wipe.

DEPLOY SCREEN

The Deploy screen provides an overview of the map for the current match. Select a squad member, base, or vehicle using the left stick, and then press the  button to spawn at that location.

You can quickly choose your class and loadout via the menu bar at the bottom of the screen, or open the Customize screen to further configure your weapons, equipment, and Combat Role.

YOUR COMPANY SCREEN

The Your Company screen is where you choose what you bring into battle with you. From customizing your soldier to upgrading your vehicles, it all takes place here.

SOLDIER

Each soldier has a specific combat role. Read through the descriptions and choose the one that best fits your play style. You can also customize the appearance of your soldier.

NOTE: Play Multiplayer matches to “rank up” a soldier class. Each rank unlocks different rewards such as new weapons, gadgets, combat roles or special assignments.

WEAPONS

Find the gun that best suits your combat style and modify it to your liking. Weapons can be customized both visually and mechanically with weapon specializations.

SIDEARM AND MELEE

You can select a secondary weapon and melee type for each of your soldiers.

GADGETS AND GRENADES

Read up on and select new gadgets and grenades.

VEHICLES

Select which vehicles are available to you in battle. New to Battlefield V, you can earn Specializations for vehicles to increase their abilities.

SQUAD SETUP

Choose a squad to join, or switch squads.

SPOTTING

Press the R1 button to place a PING marker on the mini-map for you and your teammates. PING markers can be used to represent dangerous areas. If the PING marker is placed directly on an enemy, the marker becomes red.

COMMO ROSE

The Commo Rose system gives you the ability to quickly send basic commands and requests to your teammates. Hold the R1 button to bring up the Commo Rose menu, move the right stick to select a message, and then release the R1 button to send it.

Players also have the ability to send contextual messages in-game by pointing at a teammate and pressing the R1 button. Let your teammates know you need ammo, health, or a ride with this feature.

Squad Leaders have an additional functionality: assigning objectives for their squad to complete. Completing these squad orders rewards players with extra points, so assign these objectives frequently.

REINFORCEMENT COMMO ROSE

The Squad Rose is where the squad leader can buy and call in reinforcements. Hold the LT button + the R1 button to bring up the menu.

REVIVE

You can interact with downed Squad members to revive them. If you play as a Medic, you can revive any member of your team.

GAME MODES

GRAND OPERATIONS

Grand Operations give players the chance to take part in a large-scale war on multiple fronts across four days. In Grand Operations, the outcome of the current round carries over to the next map, giving your squad the opportunity to fight a sequence of interconnected battles.

This mix of various game modes has players fighting for control of different sectors. If the last day ends in a draw the players are put into a Grand Operation victory deciding moment called Final Stand.

AIRBORNE

New to Battlefield, Airborne pits two teams, attackers and defenders, against each other over a group of artillery cannons. The attackers enter from a never-ending wave of airplanes that fly over the map and can decide when and where to eject. Once on the ground, the attackers must locate bombs dropped from the air and use these to destroy the artillery cannons. Defenders enter the map near the artillery cannons. Attackers win by destroying all artillery cannons, while the defenders win by taking out the attackers before the cannons are destroyed.

FINAL STAND

Also new to Battlefield, the Final Stand game mode tests your ability to survive with limited weapons, gadgets, and ammo and no ability to respawn. Two teams arrive on either side of the combat area, which gradually shrinks over time. One team is declared the victor when all opposing players have been eliminated

NOTE: Airborne and Final Stand are part of Grand Operations.

CONQUEST

A classic Battlefield mode, Conquest tasks each team with capturing and controlling several key points on each map. Stand within the capture point radius to capture it for your team. Control the majority of the flags and defeat enemies to ensure your team's victory.

DOMINATION

Domination closely resembles Conquest mode, but players have fewer respawn locations and no access to vehicles.

BREAKTHROUGH

In Breakthrough, the map is divided into sectors that are initially owned by the defenders. Attackers advance by capturing and holding all objectives in a sector. When the attackers take the last sector, they win. Defenders win by taking out the attackers before this happens.

TEAM DEATHMATCH

These matches pit infantry teams against each other on small maps. There are no specific objectives beyond defeating the other team.

SPECTATOR MODE

Watch intense battles between rival armies. Try individual player spectating in both first- and third-person to be right in the middle of the action, or use complete camera control to see the mayhem from any angle. It's a visceral experience showing the massive scale of World War II.
